

Artist's rendering of the new 110,000 square foot research and development facility being built in Reston, Virginia by the Sperry Division of Sperry Rand Corporation. Completion of the building is expected to be in May 1980.