Ed

Ben Muse asked me to confirm with you your willingness to introduce Royce Henson on Jan 14 at 6:30 to introduce during the discussion period following his talk. A copy of Ben's letter to Royce is enclosed. You may also find the bio-sheet attached useful as background.

The work of the Committee seems to be completed unless you, Joe Lyle or I think of something else. (1) Joe has agreed to order the corsages and bring them to the dinner. (2) You have agreed to introduce Royce and (3) I have successfully avoided all work. Unless John needs help on the seating, Joe trusts it's his right or privilege, but I'll offer to help if he wants any aid.

P.S. It was a pleasure to serve as Chairman of such an effective Committee -- a "no-meeting" kind of Committee.

P.S. The Fall, 1971 issue of "Hologone" refers to a 20th Century Fund luncheon chaired by Robert Simon and attended by Royce Henson.
