Ed,

Ben Muse asked me to confirm with you your willingness to introduce Royce Hanson on Jan 14 and to preside during the discussion period following his talk. A copy of Ben's letter to Royce is enclosed, you may also find his Bio-Sheet, also enclosed, useful as background.

The work of the Committee seems to be completed, unless you, Joe Lyle or I think of something else. (1) Joe has agreed to order the corsoges & to bring them to the dinner. (2) You have agreed to introduce Royce, and (3) I have successfully avoided all work unless Alan needs help on the seating. As host, it's his right or privilege, but I'll offer to help if he wants any aid.

It was a pleasure to serve as Chairman of such an effective Committee - a "no-meeting" Committee.

Jim Brady

P.S.

The Fall 1971 issue of "Prologue" refers to a 20th Century Fund luncheon chaired by Rob & Usana & attended by Robert Simon & Royce Hanson.
